

October 2019

"Yes, You Can Fix Watercolor Mistakes!"

Demonstration by Becky Haletky

October 8, 2019 at 6:45 p.m. Endicott Estate, 656 East St., Dedham

Becky Haletky, Watercolorist

Please attend our October meeting on October 8, 2019 at 6:45 p.m. There is no charge to members and $5 for guests.

Becky Haletky, a graduate of Mass. College of Art with a BFA in photography, has been painting full time since 1980. Primarily a watercolorist, she also delves into acrylic on canvas and collage. Her realistic style lends itself to depicting the man-made landscape. She particularly likes to find unique subjects from the past; diners, old stores, neon signs, and gas pumps. She has travelled to almost every state and 18 countries in Europe, looking for subjects.

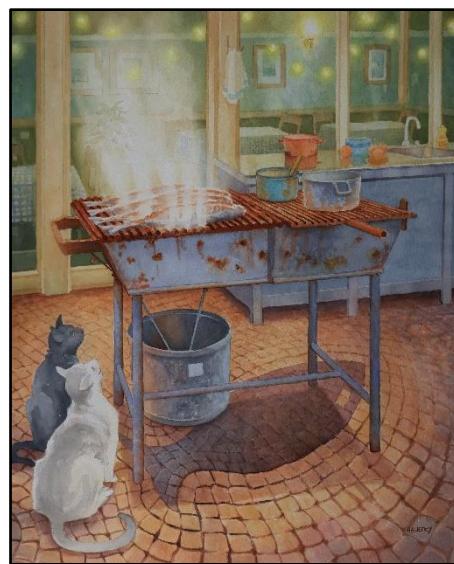

Using her photography as a starting point, she is able to capture her subjects in unusual lighting situations. "I am most excited to photograph a great subject in the rain or fog, at sunset or at night. Being a studio painter allows me to make use of dramatic weather conditions."

Becky's paintings have won over 450 awards in regional and national exhibits. She has shown in galleries in New England and New York and her work is in corporate, municipal, and private collections in America, Europe, Australia and Korea. She is a past president of the prestigious New England Watercolor Society and served on their board to directors for 20 years. She is a recipient of numerous Mass. Cultural Council grants, and collections of her paintings are owned by the towns of Pembroke, Abington, Rockland and Whitman.

She has taught painting at the Fuller Museum, the South Shore Art Center, and the Plymouth Center for the Arts. From 2004 to 2012 she taught painting workshops in County Mayo Ireland, Venice Italy, and Santorini Greece for Strabo Tour Company. Her work is featured in several books, most recently Creative Freedom by Maggie Price.

"MMM...Fish!" watercolor by Becky Haletky

Becky Haletky's website: www.artbecko.com