

Watercolor Demonstration by Wendy Hale Tuesday, March 12, 2019 at 6:45 p.m., Endicott Estate, Dedham

Welcome Back

It is hoped you had time during our winter break to relax with dear ones and, of course, to create artwork. Please remember the due date for the Five Stars Regional Exhibit is March 11th. If you are debating submitting an entry, this will be the first some members in the five art groups are entering an exhibit. You are in good company!

Wendy Hale, Watercolorist

Please join us on Tuesday, March 12th for a watercolor demonstration by Wendy Hale. There is no charge for members and a guest fee of $5.

“I was born in New York City, immersed in art and architecture. My father was an architect and my mother an artist – it was all about the visuals. I attended Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts and then Boston University where I studied

Urban Planning and Architecture. After practicing urban planning, I returned to painting, inspired by my son’s Crayola watercolor paint box. I became intrigued with the medium and have been painting watercolors ever since, the city, innately, my subject. I am affiliated with several leading art societies, and have juried and curated exhibits, taught watercolor and receive frequent awards for my work.

I am the president of New England Watercolor Society, Copley Artist with the Copley Society, Rhode Island Watercolor Society signature member, and a Gallery Artist with South Shore Art Center and Concord Art Association. I have worked as a consultant for the Carlyle Hotel and the Gramercy Park Hotel in NYC. I have juried and curated exhibits, taught watercolor and receive frequent awards for my work.”
